Purify and recharge your spirit for the summer -This year, we need this more than ever! -

From ancient times, the Japanese people practiced 夏越之祓 Nagoshi-no-Harae, a prayer to purify and to rid themselves of the first half of the year's 厄難 yakunan (illness, accident, injury, fight etc...) or "bad luck" and kegare, or "withered spirit". Over the course of the first half of the year, the energy of a person's spirit is diminished by tiredness, stress, and other pressures, so Nagoshi-no-Harae rituals are performed every June to cleanse and refresh this energy and recharge the spirit. Shinto Shrine of Shusse Inari in America provides these traditional services with mystic rituals that have been passed down through the generations of our family.

One such ritual is the use of 人形 hitogata on which have been written the mystic words, "十種神宝 Tokusa-no-kamdakara." Hitogata are slips of paper cut into the shape of a person, and it is believed that the hitogata represents the person concerned. In the Nagoshi-no-Harae service, the hitogata is thought to carry all of that person's kegare.

[How to use hitogata]

- 1. Write your name and age on the front of hitogata.
- 2. Wipe on the body part one wishes to improve or renew with the hitogata. For example, one suffering from knee pain would wipe the hitogata on their knee, or, if they wish to be smarter, on their head.
- 3. Breathe upon the hitogata.
- 4. Complete the application form and select the package plan.
- 5. Prepare the donation service fees. Check: Payable to Shinto Shrine of Shusse Inari in America PayPal: PayPal@ShintoInari.org
- 6. Mailed (it must reach us no later than June 28th)
