

Purify and recharge your spirit for the year.

From ancient times, the Japanese people practiced 年越の大祓 Toshikoshi-no-Ōharae, a prayer to purify and to rid themselves of the year's 厄難 yakunan (illness, accident, injury, fight etc...) or "bad luck" and kegare, or "withered spirit". Over the course of the last six months (since you performed Nagoshi-no-Harae), the energy of a person's spirit is diminished by tiredness, stress, and other pressures, so Toshikoshi-no-Ōharae rituals are performed every December to cleanse and refresh this energy and recharge the spirit. Shinto Shrine of Shusse Inari in America provides these traditional ceremonies with mystic rituals that have been passed down through the generations of our shrine.

One such ritual is the use of 人形 hitogata on which have been written the mystic words, “十種神宝 Tokusa-no-kamdakara.” Hitogata are slips of paper cut into the shape of a person, and it is believed that the hitogata represents the person concerned. In the Toshikoshi-no-Ōharae ceremony, the hitogata is thought to carry all of that person's kegare.

[How to use hitogata/katashiro]

1. Write your name, street address (not PO Box) and age* on the front of hitogata/katashiro.
If you need additional hitogata and/or katashiro, please download from our website, print out, and cut out them along the outline. Write name, street address (not PO Box) and age/license plate etc...
2. Breathe once on the hitogata/katashiro. (For pet, the pet itself or owner may breathe upon the katashiro.
For vehicle, owner or driver should breathe upon the katashiro).
3. Wipe on the body part one wishes to improve or renew with the hitogata/katashiro.

For example:

To use hitogata/Pet katashiro, one suffering from knee pain would wipe the hitogata on their knee, or, if they wish to be smarter, on their head while saying your wishes like "please heal my knee pain, please be smarter." etc. For pet, rub the pet with the katashiro if possible.

To use vehicle katashiro, wipe the steering wheel while you are saying your wishes like "please no accident, no mechanic issues." etc...
